WELCOME...

One Pillar Pagoda Hanoi

Vietnam is a fascinating blend of old and new. The essence of ancient Orient can be encountered in and around the old palaces, the royal tombs in Hue and the serene temples of Cham in Danang - an echo of a distant era.

From the refreshing hills of fragrant fine-clad hills of the North to the pristine beaches of the Central region to the fertile paddy fields of the South, Vietnam offers one of the most varied landscapes in Southeast Asia. Come and discover Vietnam for yourself and you will find not only a land full of friendly, welcoming people and natural beauty but also a land of continuing economic revival.

A rewarding experience awaits you.

VIETNAMTOURISM DANANG (VITOURS) offers you the opportunity to discover the country. Our specialities include the destinations of central Vietnam - DANANG, HOIAN and HUE.

HANOI

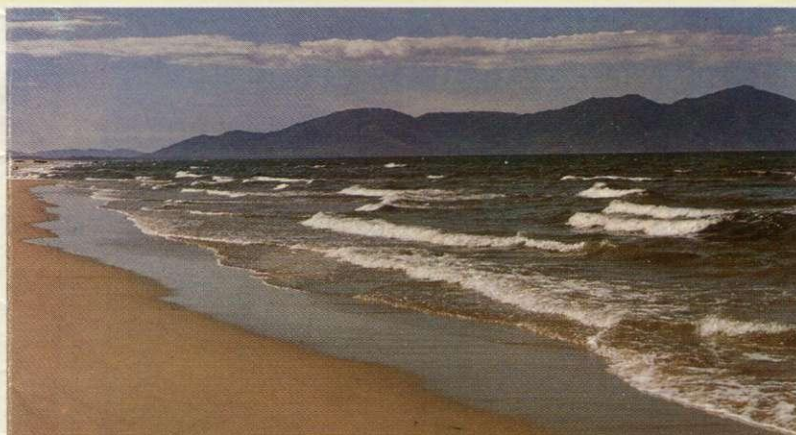

HANOI, capital of Vietnam, still retains much of its ancient character. French architecture and tree-lined avenues together with lots of public parks and lakes make Hanoi a graceful, physically attractive City. With its old world ambience and tranquility, Hanoi will be a pleasant surprise to most visitors.

HUE

Hue, once the old imperial capital of Vietnam, today is the nation's major architectural treasure and most famous tourist attraction.

Hue still retains all the vestiges of an entire historic civilization, with the Citadel, beautifully designed Imperial Tombs, grandiose palaces and pagodas are amazingly well preserved.

- Cham tower
- China beach-Danang

Noontime gate in Hue

A delightful boat trip on Perfume River will surely be a unique and memorable experience. Of particular note in Hue is the Vietnamese cuisine, which is said to be the best in the country.

DANANG

DANANG, a coastal city known chiefly as a seaport, is the location of some of the most beautiful, unspoiled beaches of Vietnam.

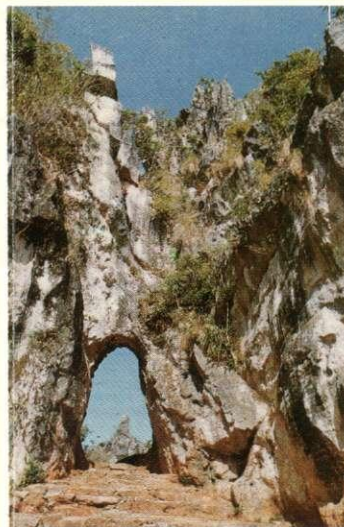

Surrounding the area are relics of the Cham civilization whose art is carefully preserved today as magnificent sandstone sculptures on display at the city's central museum and Cham Towers scattered throughout central of Vietnam. South of Danang along the coast is Hoi-an, once called FaiFo, an ancient Chinese and Japanese trading port. Strolling along the narrow streets with old houses built 200 or 300 years ago, you will notice the unique variety of impressive architecture and old-fashion charm that has been preserved over the centuries.

Danang is a real blend of old and new, past and present and today it is also a very popular cruise destination in Southeast Asia.

HO CHI MINH CITY

With a population of nearly 4 million, Hochiminh City is the most dynamic and prosperous city in Vietnam. Its bustling streets testify the city's economic rebirth.

The city provides excellent shopping opportunities and the liveliest entertainment in Vietnam.
